Special Needs Class Teacher Required School Year 2019/20

Haagsche Schoolvereniging

Situated in the centre of The Hague and enjoying an excellent reputation, the HSV International Primary School provides international education to families in The Hague. The school offers mainstream and special education.

We currently have a vacancy for an experienced teacher in The Lighthouse part of our school. Lighthouse offers individualised education to children aged 3-13 who are unable to cope in international mainstream education. The Lighthouse provides a safe and structured learning environment for children with complex challenges.

The children come from international families that are temporarily based in The Netherlands, generally due to the parents' employment. The children have a range of different mother tongue languages. English is the language of instruction at the school.

Our Community

The staff in Lighthouse have extensive experience of working with children with complex learning needs and most also have specialist qualifications.

We are in The Hague, which is a modern and safe city of more than 500,000 people, and The Netherlands offers residents a wealth of cultural engagement, outdoor recreation, and travel opportunities. Special Needs Class Teacher Required School Year 2019/20

The Lighthouse Special Education which is part of the HSV International Department is currently seeking applicants for a full-time class teacher. The teacher would work with a small class (of no more than eight) children with various complex special educational needs. The children range in age from 5 years to 12 years old. The vacancy is currently in the class for older children.

The successful candidate will have experience of working with students with autism as well as language and developmental delays. He/she will also have experience of working with children with behavioural challenges. We seek a team member who is passionate and committed to the learning and development of children with special needs. It is essential that the successful candidate shows a willingness to work collaboratively and plan across the curriculum to meet the needs of learners, and have the desire to work closely with colleagues and parents.

The job involves:

- Preparing and delivering lessons to students, individually and in small groups.
- Leading and working cooperatively with the teaching assistants assigned to the class.
- Experience in writing IEPs; setting goals and determining strategies for intervention
- Managing students' behaviour plans.
- Attending meetings with parents and specialists about students' progress.
- Working alongside specialist therapists.
- Giving feedback to the parents about students' progress.
- Liaising with the mainstream class teacher before the work day for children in integration lessons
- Supervising students at lunchtime and outside playtimes.

We seek applications from candidates who possess the following qualities:

- deep understanding of meeting the complex needs of children
- good interpersonal and organisational skills
- flexible team player
- sense of humour
- good ICT skills
- a willingness to learn the Dutch Language
- ability to work independently

All applicants must:

- Have Dutch Qualified Teacher Status for primary schools (PO) and preferably for special primary schools (SBO)
- be fluent in English (C2 level)
- Have knowledge and training in special education.
- Have experience of working in a primary (5-12) special education classroom. Self-contained or special needs unit.
- Have knowledge or experience of methods/programs used in special education, i.e. TEACCH, PECS, PRT, ABA, etc.
- Meet the requirements to live and work in the EU (eligible passport or visa).
